Delgado Community College contracts with the National Student Clearinghouse to process enrollment verifications for our students. We transmit enrollment data to the Clearinghouse several times during each semester/session so the information printed on this "Enrollment Certificate" is both accurate and current. Therefore, Delgado Community College considers verifications printed from this database official and will not provide additional verifications at your request. If you have questions about the National Student Clearinghouse, our contract with them, or the authenticity of verifications provided by them, please contact the Office of the Registrar at 504-671-5022. You may also contact the National Student Clearinghouse at 703-542-7791 if you need enrollment or contact information about our students.
